Citation:

The original material in the text should be given in the parenthesis naming: the authors last names, the years of publication of cited literature, the number of pages, if citation is used.

E.g. (McQuail, 1992: 34).

In the case of two authors, both last names should be written in parentheses.

E.g. (Hallin & Mancini, 2004).

If there are more than two, but less than six authors, when the reference appeared in the text it needed to name the last names of all authors, and every next time only the last name of the first author and abbreviation: et al.

E.g. (Deibert, Palfrey, Rohozinski, Zittrain & Stein, 2008) – first time

(Deibert et. al., 2008) – every next time

If there are six or more authors, than only the last name of the first author should be written and abbreviation: et al. naming several authors in the parenthesis.

Naming various literatures, should be given alphabetically not chronologically.

E.g. (Ang, 2001; Black, 2001; DeNardis, 2009; Grimmelmann, 2007).

In the case of signing in parenthesis, in the text, more scientific texts of the same author with the same year of publishing, the texts should be signed: a, b, c..., with the year of publication.

E.g. (Castells, 2014a); (Castells, 2014b).

References

The list of cited literature should include only the original literature author refers to. References should be cited by Latin alphabet, by last names. If there is more than one cited work by the same author, than the years order of publication should be followed. If the assertion contains more than one author, the reference should be positioned according to the last name of the first author.

The way of listing the references in the list of cited literature at the end of text:
