

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	9
HOW TO DIE?
Ars Moriendi in Canadian Short Fiction by Women	17
The Intriguing Liminality of Dying in Keefer’s “Going Over the Bars”	37
The Mystery of Death in Stephen King’s Elevation	53
WHAT HAPPENS AFTER DYING?
The Stage as Purgatory: Shakespearean Moral Dilemmas ..	67
Embracing Death in Gowdy’s “We So Seldom Look on Love”	83
The Graveyard in the Novel Lincoln in the Bardo	99
Comic Liminality of Dreaming and Dying in “The Beloved Departed” by Craig Boyko	115
DEAD OR MAYBE NOT: WHAT DOES SCIENCE SAY?
Multiverse Theories and Time Travel in Sherman Alexi’s Flight	133
A Desire for Grand Narratives: Metamodern Reading of the Film K-PAX	149
The Last Woman: “Thought Experiments” by P. K. Page and C. Langlois	171
CONCLUSION	191

Pier Francesco Cittadini (1616-1681), Vanitas - Still Life with Violin, Score, Flower Vase and a Skull

https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Pier_Francesco_Cittadini_Vanitas-Stilleben.jpg